Case Details:

The Complainant was putting her groceries into her vehicle in the HEB parking lot at 11511 West Ave, when she was approached by SP1. SP1 told the complainant that she was looking for a church where she could donate a large sum of money. SP1 showed the Complainant a purse containing rolled bundles of money with a large denomination bill showing on the outside. The Complainant took SP1 to the Complainant's church to donate the money. The Complainant and SP1 went inside where the SP1 gave the receptionist an envelope. The envelope was later discovered to contain a ten dollar bill on top of multiple pieces of "play money."

The two left the church before the envelope was opened. Upon leaving the church, the Complainant and SP1 were approached by SP2 who showed the two a second bundle of money. SP2 claimed the money was a $75,000 inheritance that she had received. SP1 and SP2 succeeded in convincing the Complainant to put up "earnest money" in order to receive a part of the inheritance. The Complainant put up the earnest money, and discovered that she had been deceived by SP1 and SP2 in what is commonly known as a pigeon drop." Case #80956926.
